THE NEWS.

Lieutenant-Governor Archibald of Halifax, N. S., has received a letter advising him that two vessels recently left Boston, each carrying a cargo of torpedoes, which are to be planted in the harbor at Halifax for the purpose of blowing up British shipping. It was further asserted that the explosion would probably take place on May 14, the day fixed for the execution of Brady and other Phoenix Park murderers. Sufficient importance is attached to the warning to justify the authorities of Halifax in strengthening the guards at the various barracks, magazines and dock yards.

Thomas A. Edison and others, representing a capital of $2,000,000, have filed papers with the Secretary of State of New York incorporating the Electric Railway Company of the United States. The object is to test electricity as a motive power.

It turns out that Paymaster Wasson, who pretended to have been robbed of $15,000 while travelling on a railway train in Texas, invented the story to cover up a shortage of $5,500 in his accounts. He is now under arrest at San Antonio, Texas.

State Auditor S. Brown Allen has sent out circular letters to fifty representatives of insurance companies doing business in Virginia notifying them that unless they send in their annual reports to his office within fifteen days, as required by law, he will revoke their license and prevent them from transacting business in Virginia.

The Okeechobee Company will launch at Kissimmee, Fla., the largest dredge boat in America, which will excavate 20,000 cubic yards per day. It is designed to cut a canal sixty-five feet wide and ten feet deep, and will commence operations at the lower end of Lake Kissimmee and go direct to Lake Okeechobee. The completion of this canal will reclaim 4,000,000 acres of sugar lands.

Work has been resumed in three large rubber manufacturing at Brunswick, N. J. The New Brunswick Rubber Company took on 1,000 hands, the New Jersey Rubber Company took on 1,600, and the Meyer Rubber Company took on 1,000.

Judge Brown, of the United States District Court, at New York has issued a warrant of removal for Matthew Rooney and George L. Stanley to New Jersey, where they stand indicted for selling counterfeit trade dollars.

Phipps, the alms-house forger, has been found guilty in Philadelphia.

Two escaped convicts named Miller and Katharin have taken refuge in the Boston mountain, Van Buren county, Ark., and have committed so many depredations in the surrounding country that an armed force has started out to dislodge and capture them.

A letter received at El Paso, Texas, from Gen. Crook's office confirms the report of having crossed the Mexican border, Indian trails being found.

Judge Billings, of the United States Circuit Court at New Orleans, has rendered a final decree in the case of Myra Clark Gaines vs. the city of New Orleans, giving judgment against defendant for $1,925,667, with 5 per cent interest till paid, with costs.

The Supreme Court of Ohio has refused to grant the motion for a petition in error in the case of J. D. Watson, convicted of bribing members of the Legislature. The sentence of the court to imprisonment will now be carried out.

The activity at Richmond, Va., may 1st, in the tobacco trade has surpassed anything ever known in the history of this business in the city. Nearly 2,000,000 pounds of tobacco, 4,000,000 cigarettes and 1,000,000 cigars have been shipped from here or prepared for shipment at an early day.

During last week twenty-five steamships of large tonnage arrived at Newport News, Va.

Middle and Southern News

A storm struck Paterson, N. J., which demolished the unfinished spire of St. John's Catholic Church, unroofed a number of houses, lifted lumber piles into the canal and demoralized the telephone wires. A severe hail-storm at Denver, Col., is supposed to have completely ruined the fruit crop in that neighborhood. The hail-stones, some of them an inch in diameter, lay six inches deep in the street.

During a terrific wind and rain storm at Trenton, N. J., the main tent of Forepaugh's circus was blown over, the canvas was torn in shreds, the seats thrown over, and all the aerial apparatus destroyed. The last of the afternoon audience had just left the tent.

The central body of the Parnell Land League in New York have resolved to do everything possible to prevent the importation and sale of English goods here.

President Walker of the New Orleans City Railroad Company, at a meeting of the finance committee made a formal offer of $300,000 to the World's Industrial and Cotton Centennial Exposition if the building be located near the lines of that company.

Charles Sprout, John O'Dell, George Hughes and Joseph Webster have been arrested at Montoursville, Pa., for passing counterfeit silver dollars. After a hearing they were committed to prison in default of $1,000 each.

The stable of J. A. Grinstead, at Lexington, Ky., containing six thoroughbred yearlings, all by imported Thunderstorm, has been burned, and all the animals perished. Loss $10,000. The fire was incendiary.

Moody and Sankey have arrived in New York by the steamer Alaska.

The steamer Alaska, Capt. Murray, from Liverpool and Queenstown, which arrived at New York May 6, made the trip from Queenstown in 6 days 23 hours and 48 minutes, thus beating her former time of 7 days 1 hour and 50 minutes, which had heretofore been the quickest time on record.

The State Board of Health at Wheeling, W. Va., has quarantined Mercer county, the smallpox having broken out at Princeton with great violence. Over forty cases have developed and twelve deaths have already resulted. It originated from a tramp stopping at the house of Mr. Blankinship.

Special State Tax Collector James E. Hamilton has levied upon ten locomotives at Manchester, belonging to the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad Company to secure taxes amounting to $80,000, which State Auditor Brown Allen claims to be due the State from that corporation.

Gov. McEmery, of Louisiana, has called a convention to meet at Baton Rouge on June 18 to consider a plan for building, maintaining and protecting levees. The delegates are to be chosen by the police juries of the several parishes by the city council of New Orleans.

Foreign News.

LONDON, May 6.—A dispatch has been received from Tabreez, Persia, reporting that that city has been visited by an earthquake, which destroyed a great many houses and killed a large number of persons.

LONDON, May 8.—The London Globe denies the statement that Peter Tynan is in London with a view of turning informer. The third trial of Timothy Kelly began in Dublin yesterday.

PIC-NIC.

Complimentary Benefit to the Manhattan Base Ball Club, Monday, May 14, 1883, at Mr. John C. Ricks, at Ricks's Park, 7th and Boundary streets, N. W.

Acknowledging the worthiness of the Manhattan Base Ball Club, and feeling the pride of a Washingtonian, I have made arrangements to tender to the above named club a complimentary benefit as the players, although baseballists of great merit, they are of limited means, and it is only by the cooperation of the citizens of the District of Columbia that they can be successful as a club. Therefore I call upon my patrons, friends and the public in general to assist me in making this the first picnic of the season a success by their presence and patronage. Yours respectfully,

J. C. RICKS.

The club will serve as a committee to Mr. Ricks in attending to the comfort and pleasure of those who may be present.
